

Board Meetings: No Electronic Meetings

Electronic meetings prohibited—

An electronic meeting is a meeting of the Board that some or all of the Board members attend through an electronic video, audio, or both video and audio connection. The Board finds that the potential benefits of holding electronic meetings are outweighed by the costs, additional procedural and notice requirements of holding such meetings. The Board therefore hereby determines that none of its meetings shall be held by electronic means.

Utah Code § 52-4-207\(1\), \(2\)\(c\)\(i\) \(2024\)