

INSTRUCTION SPECIAL PROGRAMS SPECIAL EDUCATION

EDE

1. PROVISION OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

Eligible students with disabilities shall enjoy the right to a free appropriate public education, which may include instruction in the regular classroom, instruction through special teaching, or instruction through approved contracts. The District shall be responsible for providing educational and related services to eligible students in the least restrictive environment. As determined by the student's IEP team, the District may provide services in the least restrictive environment regardless of whether the other students in the class or setting are eligible for special education services. Students with disabilities shall have the opportunity to participate in educational programs and activities with students without disabilities. To be eligible for special education services a student must have been determined to have one or more of the disabilities listed in federal regulations or in state law.

SPECIAL EDUCATION PROGRAM —

The District's special education program is the systems established to:

1. Implement IEPs for eligible students;
2. Appropriately and timely identify eligible students;
3. Evaluate and classify eligible students by qualified personnel;
4. Implement standards for special education classes and services;
5. Deliver special education service responsibilities;
6. Ensure special education instructional staff are appropriately credentialed; and
7. Provide services for dual enrollment students that are eligible students and attending public school on a part-time basis.

Utah Code § 53E-7-201\(4\) \(2022\)

2. DEFINITION OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

“Students with disabilities” mean students between the ages of 3 and 22, inclusive, with educational disabilities as established by federal and state regulations (intellectual disability, hearing impairment (including deafness), speech or language impairment, visual impairment (including blindness), a serious emotional disturbance, an orthopedic impairment, autism, traumatic brain injury, another health impairment, a specific learning disability, deaf-blindness, or multiple disabilities).

Utah Code § 53E-7-201\(1\), \(8\) \(2022\)

34 CFR § 300.8\(a\)\(1\)

3. STUDENTS TURNING 22 YEARS OF AGE DURING SCHOOL SESSION

When a student with a disability turns 22 years old during the school year, and the student has not graduated from high school with a regular diploma, the student's entitlement to services is extended to the end of the school year.

State Board of Education Special Education Rules II.I.

4. CHILD IDENTIFICATION

The District shall maintain a system for identifying children with disabilities who are in need of special education that includes a system of public awareness to inform the public annually of educational opportunities available to those with disabilities.

State Board of Education Special Education Rules II.A.

5. PARENTAL PARTICIPATION IN SPECIAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The District shall maintain documentation to indicate the extent of parent participation in the student's Individual Education Plan (IEP) development and parent agreement or disagreement with the IEP.

State Board of Education Special Education Rules III.G.

If the parent is unavailable or refuses to cooperate in an IEP meeting, the District may proceed in its responsibilities for the student's education after the avenues in federal regulations have been exhausted. Efforts to contact or include the parent shall be documented. If the parent refuses to consent to initiation of formal evaluation procedures or initial special education placement, the District may pursue the courses of action available in state and federal statutes and regulations.

6. INDIVIDUAL EDUCATION PLAN (IEP)

The IEP developed for each student shall include all the elements required by state and federal regulations, and shall be completed and in place in the time required by federal and state law and regulations. Signatures of the participants present and an indication of agreement or disagreement with the decisions of the committee shall be a part of the IEP. In establishing the IEP, the District shall consider the student's needs and the services provided so as to prevent valid excused absences for mental health or behavioral health resulting in a failure to provide a free appropriate public education to the student as required by law.
